MAHASARAKHAM UNIVERSITY

The university symbolic tree

The Khoon or Rajaphreuk, a cassia tree yielding yellow blossoms, meaning as auspiciousness or prosperity.

Mahasarakham University's Emblem

The emblem of “Rojanakorn” means a stamp of brilliant prosperity. The symbols in the emblem comprises a Sema with an outline of Phrathat Nadoon in the center of the Sema. Underneath the Sema are solar rays radiating from the Isan Khid design, with the motto in Pali language. “Bahunam Pandito Jive” means “Public devotion is a virtue of the learned.”

The Sema means knowledge or wisdom. Phrathat Nadoon is a sacred place symbolizing morality and virtue.

The solar rays means prosperity.

The Isan Khid design means Wisdom and Isan cultural heritage.

In summary, the university's emblem means prosperity integrated among knowledge, virtue, and local wisdom.

History of Mahasarakham University

1968

March 27th, 1968 : Collage of Education Mahasarakham.

Under the Ministry of Education, teacher training degrees were extended into rural regions. So, in the Northeast, the teacher training degree was established in Maha Sarakham province .

At the early phase of establishment, Collage of Education Mahasarakham was mentored by Mahasarakham Teacher College. There were 6 new buildings setting for College of Education : a school building, a library, an art gallery, a canteen, and male and female dormitories. Students with good grading from Teacher College in all over the country were selected to further their 2-year higher degree in 2 majoring: English and Biology.

1974

June 29th, 1974 : “Srinakharinwirot University – Maha Sarakham Campus”

On the 16th of January 1974, the Cabinet resolved to promote the College of Education to become a university. So, the bill was proposed to the legislature. In 1974, the Srinakharinwirot University Act was published, announced and promulgated in the Government Gazette, No. 19, Part 112 on the 28th and 29th of June 1974. All of the college campuses had gathered at Srinakharinwirot University under the Ministry of University Affairs with the title of ‘ university’ and regional campus, entitled “Srinakharinwirot University – Maha Sarakham Campus”

1994-1999

December 9th, 1994: “ Mahasarakham University”

The university continually developed its groundwork until gaining an independent university status under the name of ‘Mahasarakham University’ on the 9th of December 1994, upon affixing the royal signature of His Majesty King Bhumibol Adulyadej the Great (King Rama IX) to the University Act, announced in the Government Gazette, No. 111, Part 54 A. Then, Mahasarakham University, with an area of approximately 145 sces(59 hectares), became the 22nd government university, located at 269/ 2 Nakonsawan Road, Talad sub-district, Mueang district, Maha Sarakham province.

The university later expanded the area to “Khok Nong Pai forest”, Khamriang Sub-district, Kantarawichai District, Mahasarakham since 1996. The area is approximately 1,300 rai with more building establishment.

The university moved its headquarter to Khamriang Sub-district, Kantarawichai District. In 1999, more majors and faculties had been established to serve various academic
